Non-Plan jpants provided by the Government to UGC have been steadily increasing ever the fears. UGC has appointed a Committee to eroive rational norms for providing development and maintenance grants to the Central Universities. Meanwhile, Chairman, UGC, has advised the Central Universities, Deemed Universities and Delhi Colleges, in March, 1993, to mate efforts to reduce avoidable expenditure and augment internal income wherever possible.

According to the information furnished by UGC, paucity of funds may affect some developmental activities of the institutions, hot the basic facilities are not likely to be affected. However, it will not lead to commercialisation ,of higher education.
